Seniors Enjoy Last Year

1973 - that's our year and nobody else's. Our hopes and dreams for Homecoming, Sports Events, a "certain chislic party" and commencement, played a spot in our minds in the fall of "72".

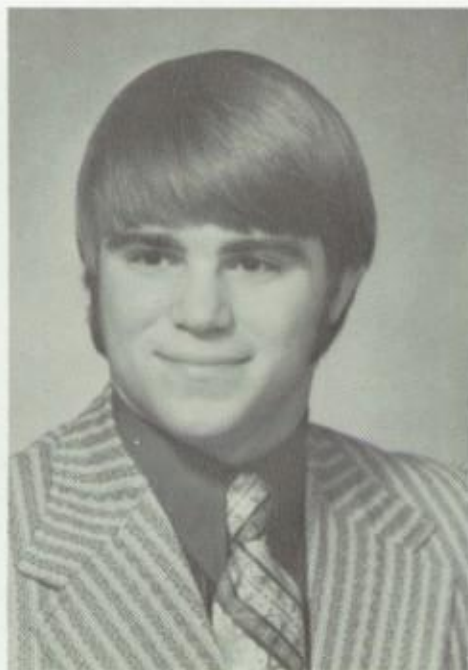

We challenged our minds in ACT, GATB, and Army tests and waited anxiously for the results.

The seniors anticipation of graduation was of mixed feelings. Some "couldn't wait to get out of here" while others said they would miss the kids.

Thirty-nine was our beginning in 1969 and 42 is our number in 1973 - so here goes the class of 1973.

For Homecoming of '72 we won 2nd place on our float. It was entitled "Victory is Our Pot of Gold" with a colorful rainbow and a pot of gold. For additional beauty Debbie Thomas and Diane Christensen rode on it.

In October the exciting moment came when our class rings finally arrived. We had waited patiently since May. The smallest ring size is Susan Waltner's with a size 5 and the largest is Randy Broder's with a size 13.

This year our class had the highest record for magazine sales totaling $3,235.70. Marcia's group sold the most with $2,637.54 and Bruce's group sold $595.68. Our highest salesman was Lorrie Hoff. With all bills paid we earned $1,294.28.

Prom was the highlight of our junior year. Our theme was entitled "We'll be friends as the years go by." Our decorations described the rugged pioneer days. It sure was a day worth remembering!

Officers for the junior class were, FRONT TO BACK: John Weier, president; Randy Koerner, student council; Pam Stewart, vice-president; Ruth Werner, secretary; Mary Preheim, treasurer; and Sue Waltner, student council.

The sophomores took advantage of their elective courses this year after a very limited freshman curriculum. Beside the required English, biology, and P. E., they were allowed to take typing, Home Ec., I. A., Child Development, geometry, hobbies and crafts, Spanish, and German.

They displayed their creativity in their Homecoming float, "Shake 'em, Split 'em, Lick-'em."

Class activities being few, they planned at least one class party. Experiencing an easy year, they enjoyed themselves and had a great time.

Merit Society

Holds 3rd Annual

All-School Carnival

The Freeman Merit Society held its 3rd annual carnival this year. Young and old alike came and were entertained at the fifteen booths. Some of these booths were fortune telling, novelties, telegraph, spook house, bingo, and sponge throw. A King and Queen and Prince and Princess, were chosen from the grades on the basis of the number of tickets sold. The total profit brought in $2,077.27, was divided among grade school classes, and organizations.

The members also inducted 8 new members during a breakfast at the Townhouse in the fall of 1972. In the spring, 6 more new members were treated to a supper at the Covered Wagon.

FMS Members also voted to sponsor one Boy and one Girl Stater.

High Scoring Flyers Have Tough Season

After losing only 4 seniors off the '72 football squad, the Flyers looked forward to being the conference champs this time around. A big reason for this was, Salem, the big powerhouse in the conference had moved to a new conference.

Other reasons to fire the Flyers up were new maroon football suits, the 25th year of football in Freeman, and a brand new field.

The Flyers started the season by breaking in the field with a 54-8 pounding of Marion. Hanson Co. was the next victim by a tally of 42-6 at Alexandria.

After this the Flyers looked at the first poll of the season and found themselves ranked 4th in the state.

Then came Emery who had ideas of their own. After the dust had cleared the Flyers read the electronic scoreboard and found themselves with 6 to Emery's 14.

Menno hosted the Flyers and sustained a 44-0 thrashing.

Homecoming was celebrated with a 38-21 victory over the Gayville-Volin Raiders, a team the Flyers had played 25 years ago in the 1st season at FHS.

When the polls came out, the Flyers had climbed back to 10th after a leave of absence for a couple of weeks.

The Flyers journeyed to Montrose to take on the Irish. The Flyers raced to a 22-8 halftime lead. In the 2nd half the Irish chopped at the lead and with 1½ minutes left, scored on a TD pass downing the Flyers 26-22.

The Flyers closed out the season with 2 big wins, a 65-7 pounding of Canistota and a 30-6 victory at Bridgewater.

ABOVE: Football student manager, David Stahl, did his part for the team by carrying equipment and doing anything else that needed to be done.

At the start of the 1972-73 basketball season the Freeman Flyers had great expectations for a Corn Belt Conference Championship and District 21 Championship. Neither title was gained, but the Flyers, coached for the ninth year by Ron Bennett, had many memorable moments on their way to a 14-7 season record.

The campaign got off to a dismal start, as Freeman dropped their first two contests of the year, to Hurley, 61-56 and West Central 41-34.

Following those two defeats, the Flyers constructed a 10 game winning streak extending from Nov. 28, 1972 to January 19, 1973. Freeman began the win streak at home with a 66-58 win over Wagner, and followed with a 62-54 victory over Salem, a 95-57 rout of Canistota and continued with wins over Centerville, Hanson County, Elk Point and Avon. Victories no. 8 and 9 came in the Hutchinson County Tourney at Mitchell, which the Flyers won for the second straight year. Triumphs over Tripp, 53-47 and Parkston 48-44 enabled the Flyers 10th consecutive victory as they were defeated 70-49.

The Emery Eagles, eventual Corn Belt Champions snapped the Flyers win streak with a 61-55 victory. The following evening Freeman squeaked to a 77-76 win over the number one ranked Sioux Valley Cossacks in Mitchell. Mark Gross's two free throws with four seconds remaining provided the winning margin. Freeman then fell into a tailspin, losing three of their next five games, the losses coming to Montrose 61-53 and Marion 66-55. The Flyers final wins of the year were against Spencer 66-50, Wakonda 64-54 and Menno 84-48. All dreams for a spot in the State Tournament came to an end when Harrisburg defeated Freeman 63-50.

Winning Fever Found In "B" Team Season

Under the leadership of Coach Wayne Knoll and fine play by starters Keith Massey, Randy Koerner, Bruce Glanzer, Mark Gross, David Jones and Mike Waltner and good work coming off the bench by Lynn Wipf and Brad Dowden, the Freeman Flyer "B" team flew to a 15-2 record.

The "B" squad outscored their opponents 818-613 for an average of 48 points per game for the Flyers to 36 for their foes.

Freeman opened their season at home against the "B" Bulldogs 50-34, they followed with two more victories over West Central 40-39 and Wagner 37-35 on Bruce Glanzer's tie breaking layup at the buzzer.

Salem inflicted the first wound on the Flyer record with a 39-32 win at Salem.

Not letting this loss affect them, the "B"s won five more games, beating Canistota 46-30, Centerville 64-43, Hanson County 53-31, Elk Point 40-35, and Avon 58-31.

The second and final loss of the year came against Bridgewater, in which a last second shot beat the Flyers 45-43.

The "B" team ended their year by rattling off 7 consecutive wins against Emery 43-35, Spencer 49-22, Tripp 57-50, Montrose 51-32, Wakonda 41-32, Marion 67-45 and Menno 47-39.

Flyer Wrestlers

Never Say Die

For a large part of the year, the Freeman Flyer wrestling team had a wrestling roster half filled with 8th graders, freshmen, and sophomores. This young lineup won only one of eleven matches, but showed signs of being a tough one to beat in the future.

The Flyer grapplers coached for the first year by Gene Benthin and assisted by Jim Erpenbach, started the year at home facing Scotland. The Highlander's upset Freeman's hopes for an opening night win with 40-15 decision.

This defeat was followed by four consecutive Corn Belt Conference losses to Montrose 39-24, Marion 42-22, Canistota 35-22, and Montrose again 48-24.

Springfield handed the Flyers the sixth consecutive defeat by the score of 35-15.

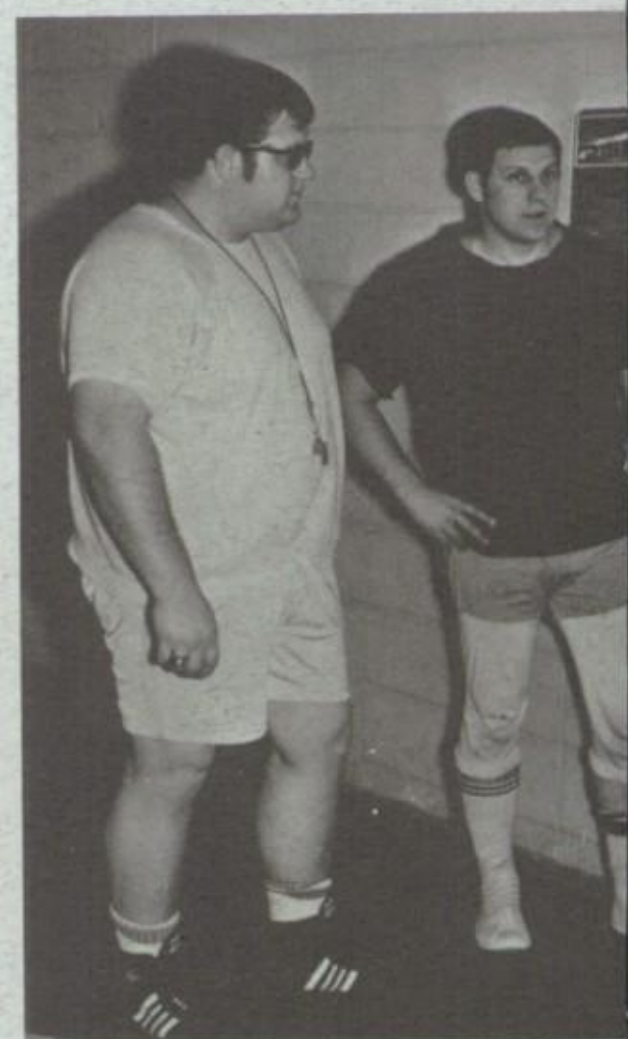

Only a pin in the final match of the evening by Parker's Randy Christenson kept the Flyers from a win, as the Pheasants slipped by the Flyers 36-29.

After a 46-15 thrashing at the hands of the Marion Bears, the Flyers captured their first victory of the year by edging the Corsica Comets 33-30.

The mat men ended the year with losses to Canistota 36-21, Tyndall 47-11 and Lennox 44-15.

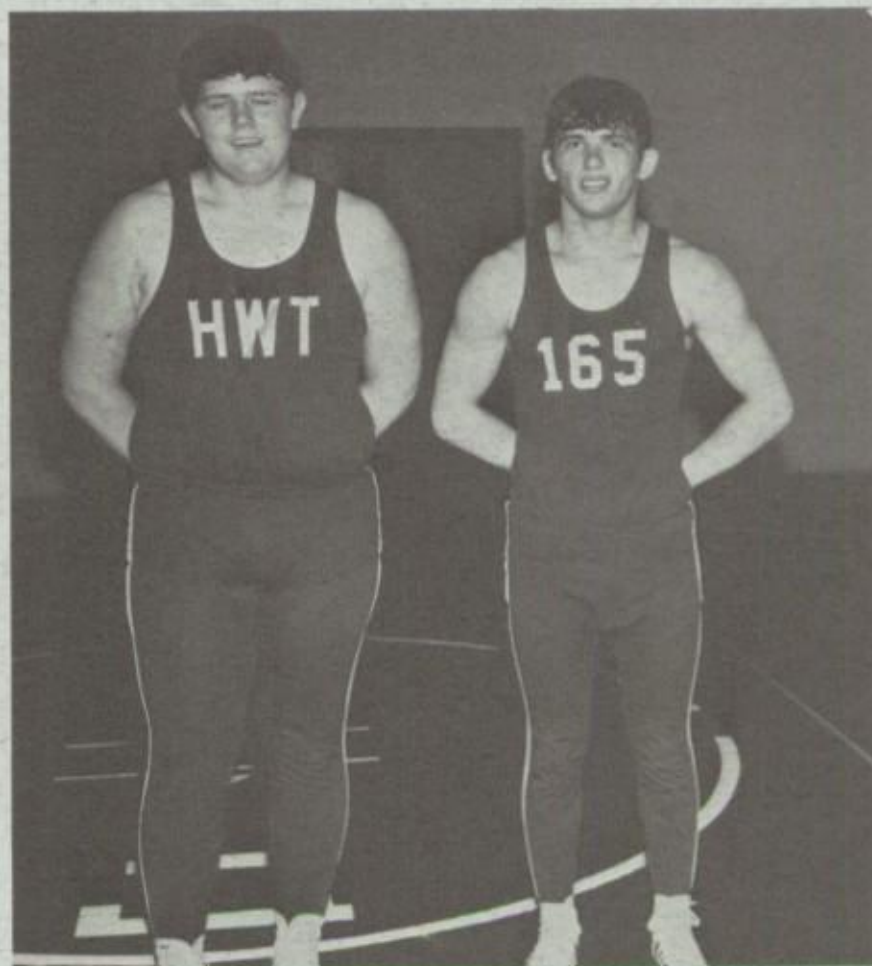

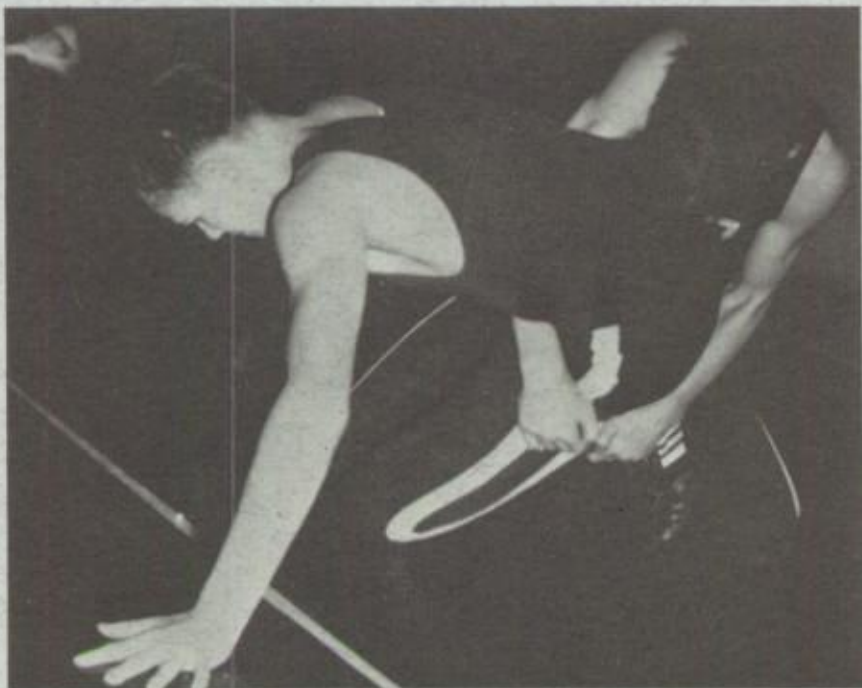

In this year's tournaments, Freeman grabbed fifth place in the Flyer invitational tourney, no Flyers won individual titles. In the Corn Belt Conference meet, also held at Freeman, the Flyers grabbed third place, behind Montrose and Canistota, Robbie Mutchelknaus and Randy Broders each won in their weight classes. Junior Heavy Weight, Randy Broders, led the Flyers in the pins for the year as he shouldered 8 opponents to the mats. Senior Gary Miller and 8th grader Robbie Mutchelknaus garnered the most takedowns with 17 apiece. Freshman Rick Stewart downed an opponent in 24 seconds for the quickest pin.

Gary Miller and Randy Broders represented the Flyers in this year's state tourney at Aberdeen.

The "B" Wrestling squad consisted of these 8 grapplers. Coach Ben-thin said they are young but show promise for a good "A" squad in the future.

Cheerleaders Keep The Fire Burning

This year the Flyer's 3 cheer-leading squads took on a new look. The "A" team cheerleaders, chosen in the spring of '72, went to an all day cheerleading clinic, held on the campus of South Dakota State University at Brookings. They learned new cheers, mounts, and chants. They also picked up a few ideas to generate spirit and passed them on to the other two squads. All 3 of the squads were busy "generating spirit" with original posters, buttons, and poster contests. ## Cross-Country Continues To Be Successful

The year 1973 was a good year for the Freeman Cross-Country team. Of the meets they participated in, they won the Freeman Academy Invitational Cross-Country meet, Lennox Invitational Cross-Country meet, and the Conference meet, which was held in Freeman. In all these meets, they won both the varsity and the junior varsity divisions. From there they went on to Brookings to place second in the state Cross-Country meet, "B" division, despite the cold and rainy weather. The team is coached by Ron Bennett.

Flyers Take 3 Meet Titles

Corn Belt Conference Champions, Flyer Invitational winner, first place in the regional track meet, those are just some of the honors that the Freeman Flyer Track Team and coach Don Diede won in the 1973 season.

The Flyers won the Conference meet by just five points over Salem. They easily won the Flyer Invitational with a slight challenge from Wagner, and the Regional crown came with no trouble at all.

Freeman ended the cinder schedule on a wet, windy day in Mitchell at the State Track Meet. Joe Villa took two thirds, the medley relay team captured second and the 2 mile relay team finished fifth to give Freeman 13 points and seventh place.

Under the direction of Mrs. Laverne Diede, the Freeman Fettes Track Team had a fine year. They won triangular meets against Menno and Marion, then against Platte and Scotland. The Fettes also were crowned Corn Belt Conference meet held at Freeman.

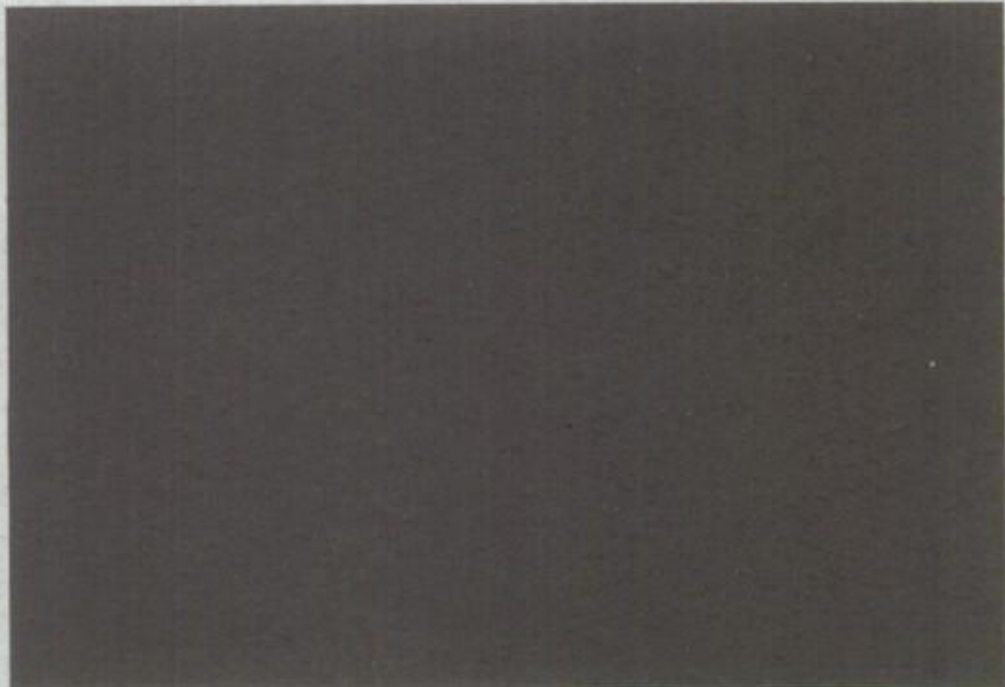

The Fettes strong events this year were the shot put and discus in which Cindy Kleinsasser, Elsie Johnson, and Debbie Gering all scored points. Jane Wipf defeated almost all competition in the 880. The team Nancy Schamber, Susan Waltner, Ranae Massey and Jane Wipf beat all relay teams except for Tyndall's crew.

The Freeman High School Band under the direction of Mrs. Betty Mudder participated in many activities this year. At the beginning of the year they began practicing for the 4th annual Pops Concert, sponsored by the Dorcas Society.

In November, six members, Cecilia Villa, Sharla Gross, Marilyn Wipf, Mary Ann Sorensen, Susan Waltner, and Shana Gullickson participated in the Augustana Band Festival.

Besides our homecoming parade, the band marched in one other parade at USD in Vermillion.

January took the band to the Abbott House Benefit basketball games. They provided music between halves of the Armour Harrisburg game and the Freeman-Sioux-Valley game. Also, in January, eleven members tried out for All State Band.

The region small instrumental ensemble contest was held at USD in Vermillion in February. The FHS Band received 18 superiors, 17 excellents, and 3 goods. In spite of arguments from the Pep Club set, the 83 piece band wore their uniforms to play at the District Tournaments.

For the spring concert in April, the band played five numbers; three of which received a superior rating at the large group contest at Beresford, April 8.

21st Homecoming - Suspense and Beauty

Homecoming activities began Thursday evening September 28, with the processional played by Jennifer Gaertner. The Royalty was preceded by the members of the Senior class. Mike and Marlene were crowned by last year's King and Queen, Kelly Mutchelknaus and Barb Uecker. Master of Ceremonies, Tim Villa, presented the Queen and her attendants with bouquets of flowers.

The homecoming activities were centered around the 25th anniversary of Freeman High Football. Guests of honor were the first football team and their coach, J. J. Billam.

Coronation was followed by a bonfire at the new football field, snake dance and pep rally on Main Street.

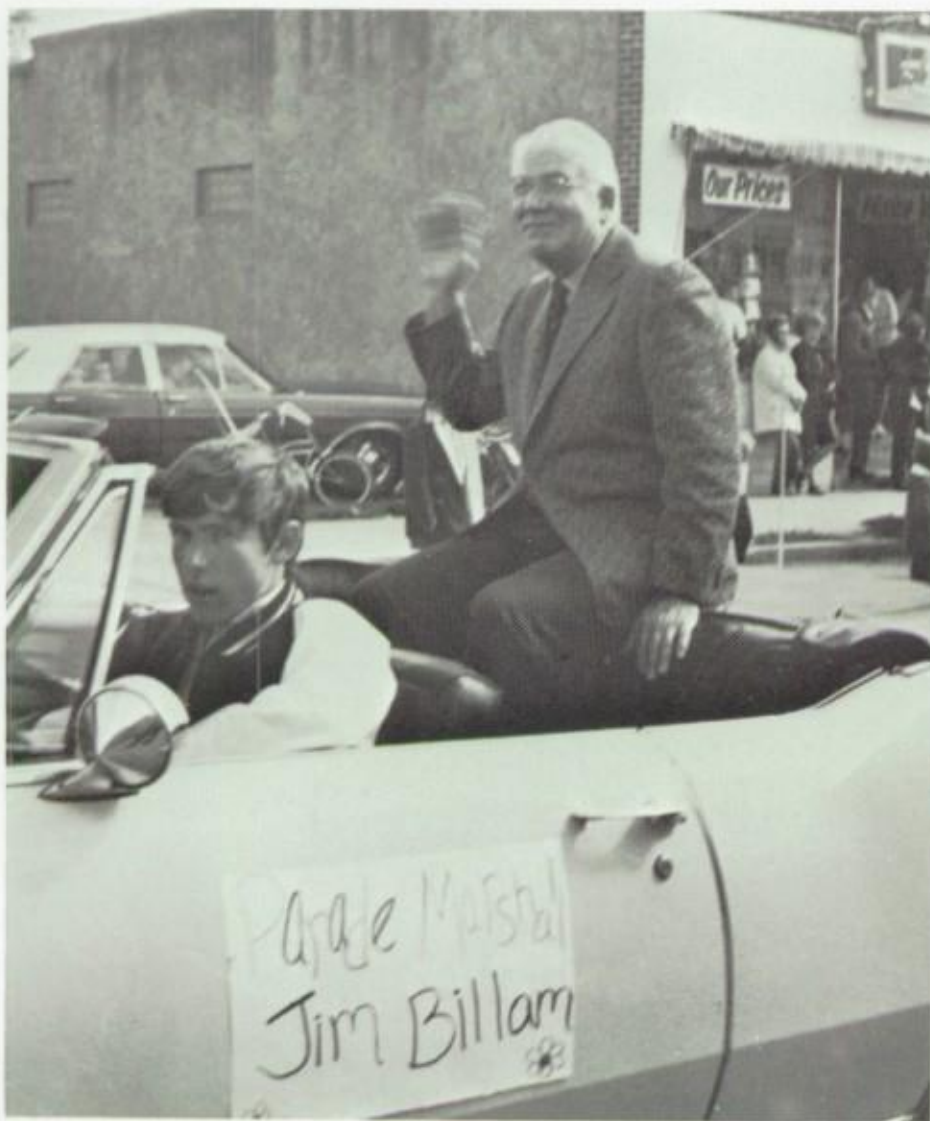

Friday morning the finishing touches were put on the floats. The parade began at 2:00 p. m. with J. J. Billam as Parade Marshall.

Crown Bearers and train bearers were Reynold Preheim, Cameron Kaufman, Joanna Hoium, and Angela Letcher.

First High School Interim in State at FHS

Freeman High School experienced a new and interesting change this year. A three day interim period was offered between semesters. The students were offered over sixty different subjects to choose from. The community and school became united in an effort to make this first interim a success. Several individuals from the community and surrounding area were involved in the teaching.

1973
Jr.-Sr.
Prom . . .

We'll Be Friends as the Years Go By

Unlike the 1972 prom, this year's prom went as scheduled. The juniors chose as their theme, "We'll be Friends as the Years Go By." A nostalgic setting from the western frontier era accompanied the theme. During the dance, punch was served from the General Store. Other attractions were the windmill and the entrance which was a bridge over a pond. Jim Epp began the festivities with a few jokes followed by John Weier's welcome to the seniors and acceptance by Ted Pidde. Mr. Diede spoke after the banquet. Entertainment was provided in the form of musical numbers by the Junior girls and Ruth Werner. The waiters and waitresses gave a skit as a part of the program. The juniors chose the band, Little Henry, to play at the dance after the banquet.

Junior girls, Mary Preheim, Sheryl Gullickson, Cindy Kleinsasser, Susan Waltner, and Ruth Werner, sang "You've Got a Friend". Jennifer Gaertner accompanied the girls. Ruth Werner sang "Friend, I Will Remember You" and accompanied herself on the guitar.

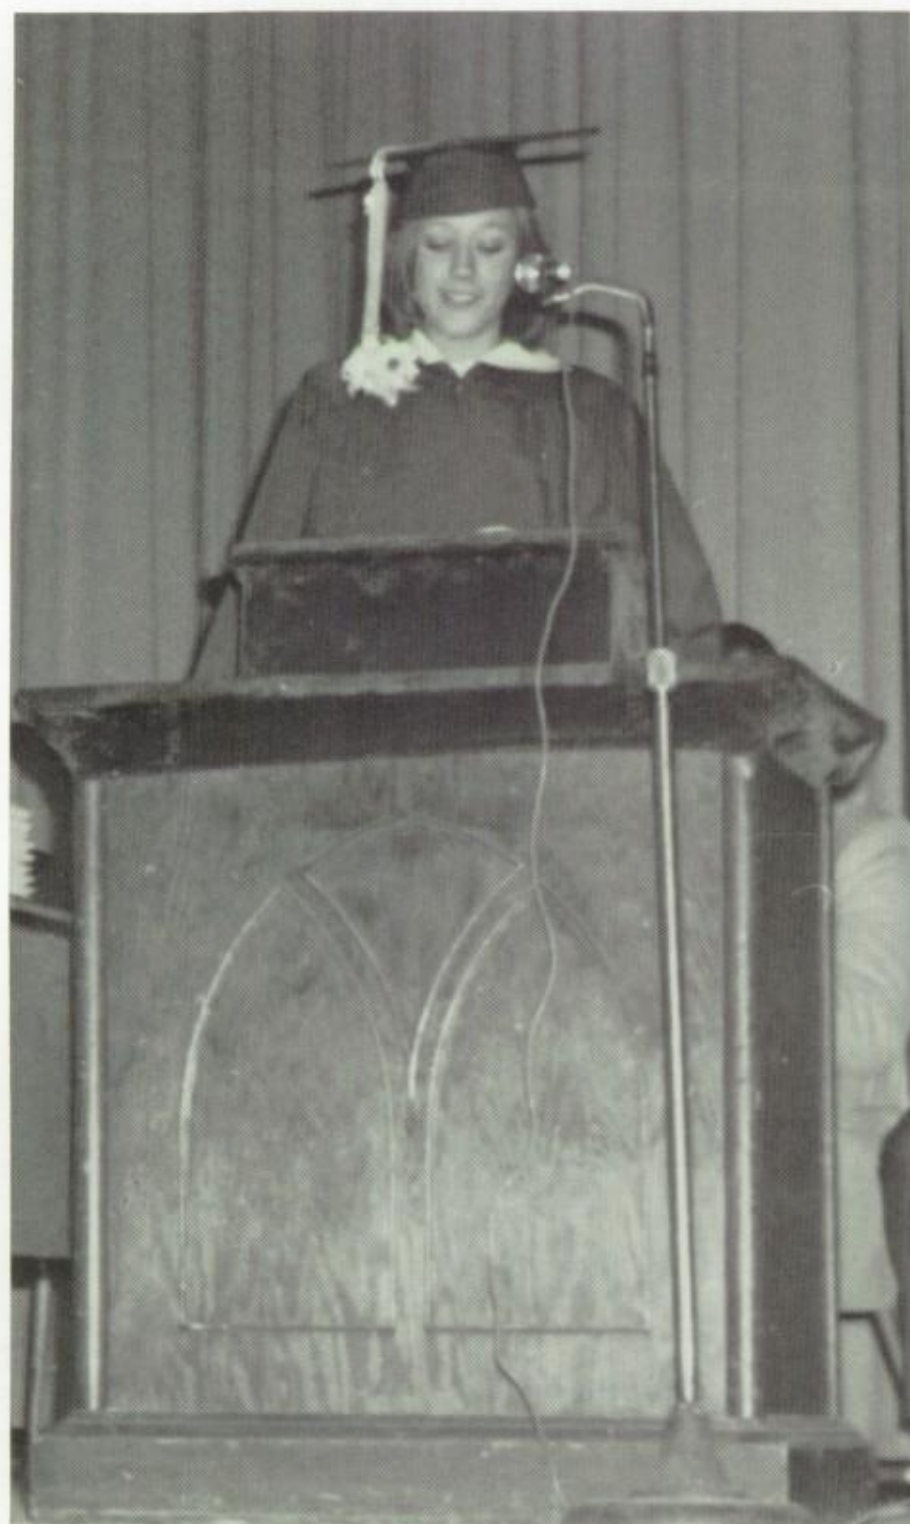

Before the banquet, juniors and seniors mingled among the scenes, one of them being the General Store.
